

Biodata After completion of BE Mechanical and Masters in Design, he started his career with TATA MOTORS DESIGN as Designer and he worked there on various projects of private cars and also worked in commercial vehicle for four and half years, Out of which the "TATA 3723" Truck displayed in Delhi Auto Expo 2012. Subsequently, which was launched as India's first 5-Axel truck, its both exterior and interior was designed by him. He had attend a seminar-cum-workshop in Pune in the year 2010 organized by LAVASA wherein almost all designers of all Automobiles Co, were attended, Mr. Chris Bangle, BMW's Former Design Chief had taken the Workshop. In the year 2011 he went to Germany to attend Automotive Interior Expo. In the year 2013 he moved to the HYUNDAI MOTORS, as a Senior Designer and worked for one and half years during this period he lead and guide the team for various Hyundai car projects. Specially, he had worked on Hyundai Avante design for China at the Hyundai Motors Design, Head Quarters, Namyang and Advance Design Studio at Seoul, Korea. He was also a visiting faculty for MIT Institute of Design Pune for Transportation Design. His sketch works had been published in various Design websites like Simkom.com , Allthesketches.com, Idrawcars.com, artissimo.tumblr.com, automotiveartists.com, 4to40.com, clustr.com. etc. He is also a member of International Designer group "Creative Pot".

A glimpse of his works could be found here : <https://swaroproy.artstation.com/>