

Guwahati

through different times

25th & 26th October 2019

Venue: IIT-Guwahati Conference Hall

Guwahati has and continues to occupy a unique and crucial location in the history of north-east India. The contemporary city—a home to more than a million people, is a sediment and a labyrinth of unique historical processes. This two-day national seminar brings together scholars and practitioners from different fields to share their work on different aspects of Guwahati with the aim of initiating a conversation around how to comprehend this complex city from different spatial and temporal vantage points.

We cordially invite you to be a part of this seminar.

The seminar is organised by the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, IIT-Guwahati in collaboration with the Indira Gandhi Rashtriya Manab Sangrahalay, Bhopal.
