

- IIT Guwahati makes it to world's top 100 universities
- New Delhi, May 1, 2014: The Indian Institute of Technology, Guwahati, has shown the way.
- The young IIT from Assam has brought cheer to Indian academic institutions by occupying a place among the top 100 world universities — under 50 years of age — published by London-based Times Higher Education (THE) magazine. IIT Guwahati has been placed 87th in the ranking that analysed 800 new-breed universities from 29 countries, including the US and the UK.
- Two years ago, the magazine has started a separate ranking for universities, which are below 50 years of age, to suggest which institutions have the potential to become the next generation's Harvard or Oxford

- IIT Guwahati makes it to top 100 Universities of Asia
- New Delhi, June 18, 2014: The Indian Institute of Technology, Guwahati, is again in the news.
- Asian Universities — published by London-based Times Higher Education (THE) magazine. IIT Guwahati has been placed 74 th in the ranking
- Ranking of Asian Universities has been done by THE. IITG is again in a good position (74). The ranks of IITs are as the following: IIT Kharagpur (45), IIT Kanpur (55), IIT Delhi & IIT Roorkee (59), IIT Guwahati (74) and IIT Madras (76).